

Movie Permission Slip

"Not Without My Daughter" is a movie based on a true story about a woman from Alpena, Michigan who went to the Middle East with her Iranian husband. He wanted to stay, she wanted to leave. This movie shows us customs, traditions, and religions which are very different from our American ways. This movie is rated PG 13.

Please sign below with approval for your student to watch this film.

Yes, my student may watch this PG13 film

No, please give my student the alternative assignment which also teaches about the culture

Parent signature

---